Take A Break!

There never will be enough time to get everything done!

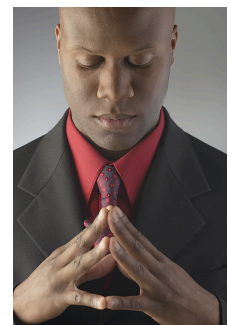

Ever wonder, “HMMMMM”, will there ever be enough time to get everything I need done, done! There’s never enough time in a day, never enough time in the week, month or year to get stuff done! “Well guess what?” There never will be enough time to get everything done! Overwhelmed by life’s challenges? Does all of this sound familiar?

Even God took a break! Yeah, even he who is the Creator of the universe, he who doesn’t get exhausted nor stressed.

God organized his task for the week, “rolled his big sleeves up” and for six days he worked. On the seventh day, however, God ended his work, “Yuup”, he rested from all his work. Well, if God who doesn’t get tired, doesn’t get weary, or “stressed out”, took a break! Don’t you think it’s time you did the same?

Not the, “kicked back, feet in the air, six pac” kind, but a real break. It’s probably hard to envision being stress free and relaxed, seeing is most of us haven’t been truly relaxed since we were babes.

The kind of break that leaves you feeling physically and mentally refreshed. The very God that created you took a break and expected you to follow his example. Most have forgotten, the fact that God told us to take a break. Maybe you have too?

In case you have, here is just a reminder. The seventh day is the day of rest. The day God set aside especially for us, a time to rest from "the day to day grind".

Come on! God knew we would forget so that's why he said, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy". Oh, just in case, "you heard through the grapevine", that we don't need breaks anymore and Jesus did away with them, "listen up".

There remains a rest for the people of God!
TAKE A BREAK!, OK!
