Speaking of Faith!

"In the beginning God".

What is faith? Seeking an answer to this often asked question can take you on a long tedious and mysterious journey. Like most words faith has several meanings which take on subtle differences with each contextual change. However, when speaking of faith in God the answer is a very simple one, which begins in Genesis with its opening statement, "In the beginning God". Faith simply becomes our confidence in the truth and validity of this statement.

In the book of Hebrews chapter eleven (11) verse six (6) it implies a transpersonal relationship and is stated thusly, "for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him". God responds to man according to what he has promised. His ability to perform the things he promises is not predicated on our belief system, but is by his omnipotence and sovereignty. Faith then is being fully persuaded that God is able to perform that which he has promised. In summary faith believes that God is and has power to perform what he will.

Finally, believing and holding fast to things God has not willed or promised leads to doubt and mistrust of God. Faith is not a test of our will but an unwavering adherence and commitment to the will and word of God. The proof of our faith is the actions we take in response to God's promises. The
